MEISTER SEELIG & FEIN LLP
OPENS LAW OFFICE IN STAMFORD, CONNECTICUT

New York, New York, March 21, 2011 -- Meister Seelig & Fein LLP announced today that it has opened an office in Stamford, Connecticut in order to leverage its growing contingent of Connecticut attorneys and to better serve its Connecticut-based clients. The firm's Stamford office is located at One Canterbury Green in downtown Stamford.

"We are excited to be able to take advantage of burgeoning opportunities in the Connecticut legal market," said Managing Partner Mark Seelig. "Our firm now has a number of seasoned attorneys who previously practiced at large Connecticut firms and regularly represent Connecticut-based clients. With our new office in Stamford, we look forward to being more accessible to Connecticut clients seeking the highest quality legal services provided in an efficient and results-oriented manner."

"We see a lot of demand in Connecticut among small, medium and large clients for sophisticated and practical legal services that add value," Seelig added.

Meister Seelig & Fein is a 50-lawyer, full-service law firm headquartered in midtown Manhattan, with offices in Stamford, Boston, Los Angeles and New Jersey. Founded in 1994, Meister Seelig & Fein is comprised of accomplished attorneys, many of whom practiced at major national and international law firms before joining the firm. The firm provides a broad range of top-tier, cost-effective legal services to its clients in the areas of real estate, commercial litigation, corporate, employment, intellectual property, entertainment, and trust and estate law.
